President's Message

Hello again! It has indeed been a while since I wrote a President's Message. Being elected Maryland State Numismatic Association (MSNA) President for the next two years is an honor, regardless of the fact that I ran unopposed. Like most numismatic organizations these days, the bulk of the work is being done by a relatively small cadre of volunteers. These good folks step in to make sure things get done and rarely complain. So it is my turn to help keep MSNA a strong and viable organization. With the help of the current Board of Directors and a few new volunteers, I really believe we can make MSNA even stronger and help prepare our organization for the future.

With this in mind, MSNA really needs many more of its members and clubs to take an active role. My plan is to get together with the Board and officers to find more ways to incorporate our members and clubs in our mission to strengthen our base and focus on increasing the numismatic information available to our members. One way that the Maryland State Numismatic Association educates our members is our yearly numismatic exhibits competition at the Whitman Coin Show. Our exhibits offer our members and the collecting community a chance to see and learn about varied areas of coins, paper money, tokens, medals, elongated coins, etc. Members and member clubs are also encouraged to put together exhibits to share their items and their history by entering an exhibit. Exhibit forms can be found each year in the Autumn Maryland Numismatist.

Once again this year, MSNA is holding its annual raffle. Tickets are going on sale soon. We will be sending some to each of our member clubs in good standing. Please sell/use these tickets and get your stubs and money back to us ASAP. Some clubs buy the tickets outright on behalf of the club. One club did this a few years ago and won a gold coin by buying the winning ticket and also got another gold coin as the seller of the first place prize. Some clubs use the tickets as door prizes at their meetings. Some just sell them to members. Your call, just please help us sell these tickets. Tickets will be available at each of the three Whitman Shows at the registration desk. Speaking of the raffle, I would like to thank Carl Ostiguy for sponsoring the printing of our tickets once again this year. You can find information about Carl's shows on the reverse of these raffle tickets and in our journal. Please support these shows. Thanks Carl!

Gerald L. Kochel, 1932-2017

Gerald "Jerry" L. Kochel, 85, of Lititz, passed away on November 10th, 2017, at Landis Homes. He was born in Ephrata, PA on October 23, 1932 to Harold and Lillian Christiansen Kochel and was the husband of Sandra Adams. Jerry was a life-long coin collector and a member of the Red Rose Coin Club, Lebanon Valley Coin Club, American Numismatic Association, Central States Numismatic Association, Florida United Numismatists, and Pennsylvania Association of Numismatists. He joined MSNA as member 605 in 1988 before he became life member 44 in 1999. He served as both exhibitor and judge. In 2009, when MSNA moved our exhibit competition to the Whitman Expo, Jerry won Best of Show with an impressive exhibit of a clock of twelve half cents with curved clips in different positions. The photo shows him receiving his award from Exhibit Chair Bryce Doxzon and President Frank Murphy. In 2010, he won best of show with an exhibit on continental currency signed by Adam Hubley. He stopped exhibiting around that time. In addition to his wife, he is survived by son Jere Kochel; granddaughter Amy Kochel; and three step children: Sherri Forry, Jeff Adams, and Steven Adams; and 5 step grandchildren: Brant Forry, LeAnne Adams, Jared Adams, Emma Adams and Max Adams.

2017 Raffle Results

The annual gold raffle was held as advertised at 2 PM on the Sunday of the fall Whitman Coin Expo in Baltimore. John Lemayski won the first prize of an uncirculated Constitution Bicentennial $5 gold piece 1989-W, and the seller of that ticket, Lenard Brokos, won a gold Mexico 1945 2 pesos. Tim Master won second prize, a 1907 Liberty Head gold quarter eagle. Third prize was a gold Mexico 1945 2½ pesos, and it was won by Darrell Kaeding. Wayne Howell won fourth prize, a proof 2012 Star Spangled Banner silver dollar. The original winner of the second prize did not write down their address and would not return our phone calls, so a new winner was drawn.

Treasury Notes by Simcha Kuritzky, Treasurer and Editor

Below are two pie charts that show our results for fiscal year 2017 (ended November 30). Each circle represents the same number of dollars; because we had more revenue than expense, the difference is shown as a surplus at the top left of the expenses pie chart.

The largest impact of using accrual versus cash basis of accounting is on life memberships--revenues earned for life membership are from payments received years ago, so regular dues and life membership dues are shown separately. Sales are just raffle tickets. Journal expenses include printing, postage, and the web site hosting fee. Prize expense includes raffle, exhibit, and door prizes at meetings. The cost of printing raffle tickets is included with the raffle ticket prizes, while the advertising underwriting the ticket printing makes up the bulk of donations revenue. Administrative expenses include meeting room rental. Expenses associated with the John Henry collection include the safe deposit box rental and insurance.

Revenues are down across the board ($510 less in 2017 versus 2016), and our surplus has dropped around $150. However, gold prices have gone down enough to save us $140 in raffle and exhibit prizes. We have held more meetings at the Whitman Expo to save on room rental and stopped providing snacks. Next year we should see savings in the journal as we move to three journals per year, although ad revenue will also drop.

Membership Report

The MSNA by-laws require the treasurer to prepare an annual report on the membership. I am also giving the report for all years back to 2010.

MSNA has six types of membership. Regular, club and junior members must pay each year. Life, club life, and honorary life members are inducted once and stay members until they pass away, the club is dissolved, or they resign. Honorary life members become life members immediately, while regular and club life members must be a member in good standing the three years previous. So the only changes to life membership are new members and deceased members, while regular members can join, renew (which can be paid in advance or arrears), lapse, or return after a lapse of at least one year.

Our membership increased for the first time since we stopped holding our own coin show in 2008, though 2017 had our lowest membership level in recent years. We had 137 members in 2007.

What About Just Plain Old Proof Washington Quarters?

By Mark Benvenuto, MSNA #R-825

The river of new quarters we are seeing in circulation that first welled forth in 1999 has not really abated, and it looks like it will not for several years. The Mint pounded out State quarters 1999-2008, added U.S. territories in 2009, then started the America the Beautiful (ATB) series right after that. These obviously exist as circulating coins, but there are also proofs in copper-nickel as well as 90% silver, and now there are 5-ounce silver pieces that are still called quarters. With all this quarter hype, it may seem odd to think that there is still more that might be said about quarters.

Proof Washington quarters in silver – 1992 to the present

To increase the attractiveness of offerings for collectors, the Mint in 1992 added to the annual proof issues a set with the 90% silver, 10% copper alloy for the dime, quarter, and half that had seen our nation through more than a century of circulating coinage!

The price tag wasn't high and they appear to have met a collector demand. There were 1.3 million produced in 1992, though some years have lower Mint tallies. Today someone can go about assembling a collection of just the solo silver quarters that have been issued from 1992 to the present. All will be specimens broken out of proof sets, but that doesn't take away from their eye appeal. Pieces in grades such as PF-68 deep cameo finish routinely sell for $20 - $25. That's a price range as attractive as the coins themselves. Admittedly, it could add up if we go for every design from every year, but sticking with one per year makes the total cost far more affordable.

Proof Washington quarters 1968 – 1992

There wasn't a dollop of silver in our proof quarters from 1968 all the way up to 1992, with the exception of the special Bicentennial proof set of quarter, half dollar, and dollar. Yet there were definitely proofs issued for all of those years. After what might be called the three "silent years" from 1965 – 1967 when no proofs were made, proofs again were on the table, and proof sets were eagerly bought up by the public. The 1968-S proof set saw just over 3 million produced, which means there are that many sharp-looking quarters out there as well. Certainly a person can collect by buying the proof sets, as plenty of them have not been broken up. But for the collector on the hunt for single proof quarters from these years, the very good news is that PF-65 prices start at less than $10.

Classic proof Washington quarters 1936 – 1964

It may seem odd to call Washington quarters “classic” when they are still being minted, but the portion of the series spanning from its inception in 1932 – as a commemorative of the bicentennial of President Washington’s birth – up to 1964 generally gets this title. When it comes to proofs, there are plenty starting in the mid-1950’s, and from 1950 to about 1956, we see a steady increase in mintage from 51,386 coins to a high of over 669k. And there are what we might call a precious few that were produced from 1936 – 1942.

Breaking these proofs into the three time periods we just mentioned gives us something of a framework upon which to build. Any of the 1957 – 1964 proofs are available to the patient collector in grades such as PF-65 to PF-67 for no more than $25. From these years it’s wise to purchase encapsulated examples so you have some guarantee that a PF-67 is indeed that high grade and very little chance of losing any money in the deal.

The second group we have designated, the 1950 – 1956 proof Washington quarters, will cost more. There’s simply fewer proofs made and some could have been damaged through improper storage or care. Still, PF-65 specimens don’t cost more than $60, and that’s the high end.

The oldest of these proof twenty-five cent pieces can be a fascinating group to look at in some detail. In 1936 there are only 3,837 of these proof Washingtons on the books. The price tag for a PF-65 is about $1,250. That may be far higher than some of us are willing to go for a single coin, but the 1942, which at 21,123 proofs is the highest mintage of these early years, currently is listed as a $100 coin in PF-65. Now that is both amazing and downright affordable.

As a whole?

There has undoubtedly been a lot of hype surrounding our quarters, and that buzz will not settle down any time this year or next. But amidst all the noise there are some quiet buys that just might turn out to form a fantastic looking collection--the proof Washington silver quarters. Anyone game to start a new collection?

MSNA Treasurer and Editor Simcha Kuritzky placed three exhibits at the Florida United Numismatists convention in Tampa. Under world coins, Israel's Money and the Question of Idolatry took first place. This exhibit will appear in Baltimore in March. Second place for miscellaneous went to his exhibit on Henrietta Szold, a Baltimore native who founded Hadassah. Dutch-Israel Fantasy Coins took third place in tokens and medals. Both he and MSNA Secretary Bryce Doxzon attended the Numismatic Ambassador breakfast, which used to be hosted by Krause Publications at the ANA's World's Fair of Money.

At the annual MSNA membership meeting held at the Whitman Expo in Baltimore on November 10, the new officers were sworn in. Returning to helm after 14 years were President Edward Craig (far left) and Vice President William Stratemeyer (second from the right) who was last president in 1999. Returning for a decade or more of service were Secretary Bryce Doxzon (far right) and Treasurer Simcha Kuritzky.

At its February 22 meeting, the MSNA Board decided to send premiums to all the clubs which have paid their dues and returned raffle tickets the last few years. These may include encased quarters, medals, souvenir cards and possibly new items as well which the club can keep, raffle, or auction off to help their bottom line. Also discussed was the possibility of paying for a year's membership in the ANA for member clubs in good standing. It is likely we will rent a van or bus for a day trip to the ANA World's Fair of Money the Friday of the show in August. If your club has any interest in these, please contact President Ed Craig. We hope to move forward this year with scanning the Maryland notes in the John Henry collection and placing these on our web site. Work will begin soon on updating our club history book issued for our 30th anniversary in 2002 to include events up through our 45th anniversary in 2017.

What's Your Sign?

Part Thirty- Eight: Mobil Gas Premiums

by Simcha Kuritzky, NLG

It's hard to imagine today, but way back before OPEC and the gas crisis, gas stations used to give away premiums to lure customers. I'm barely old enough to remember blue chip stamps and Arco's Noah's Ark of animal figurines. Back in 1969, Mobil gas gave out a cheap aluminum zodiac key chain as a premium, and some of them were redeemable for cash prizes. All of these tags have a large hole at top. The front shows a color cartoon zodiac sign against a colored background with a regular white star pattern. The only text is the Latin name of the sign. The font, size, and color of the name vary with each sign, as well as the color of the background. Aries and Scorpio, the two Mars signs, have yellow backgrounds. Taurus and Pisces have dark blue, Virgo and Capricorn have cyan, Leo and Aquarius have orange, and Gemini and Sagittarius have violet-red backgrounds, but these signs are not linked in any way.

The winning prize I have has Aquarius on the front, and the back has the text: "Lucky Signs" One Dollar "Instant Winner" You are an "instant winner" of $1. See a participating Mobil dealer for payment of prize. ©C.C.I. series 1069

The regular premiums have the name also on the back along with the days of the year associated with the sign, the day of the week, a number, color, character trait, and a long personality description, ending with © 1969 Glendinning Companies, Inc. The days of the week correspond to the traditional planet assigned to the zodiac sign. The colors generally do not have any traditional correspondences, except that Leo, the sun sign, is gold and Scorpio, one of the Mars signs, is deep red. The two Venus signs, Taurus and Libra, are associated with yellow (the tradition is green), and the two Mercury signs, Gemini and Virgo are blue (traditionally orange), but brown is associated with Aries and Capricorn, which otherwise are not linked in any way. They also consider plaid to be a color. There's also no apparent logic to which numbers are assigned. Only 5, 6 and 8 are duplicated, though all three pairs of signs with the same number share a ruling planet.

The colors used on the obverse don't agree with the sign's associated color, as shown in the following chart. Only Sagittarius uses its associated color as a background color, and only Libra uses it for the lettering.

MSNA Encased Quarters for Sale

MSNA has a number of different encased quarters for sale. Order them from the editor, and either add $1 for postage or pick them up at the Whitman Coin Expo.

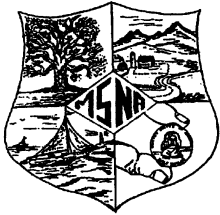

To commemorate the bicentennial of the Battle of Baltimore, MSNA issued new encased Fort McHenry quarters in 2014. The quarters are from Philadelphia, Denver, and San Francisco mints. A set of all 3 mints (the encased design is the same) is $10; a single P or D mint quarter is $4; a single S mint is $4.50.

MSNA and Maryland Token and Medal Society (MTAMS) together produced these encased quarters back in 2001 to honor the original 13 states, of which Maryland is number 10. The aluminum encasing is the same for all coins. Originally these sold for $3 each or a complete set of 13 for $40. The Maryland quarter (as one might suspect) is sold out, but the other 12 are available on a first-come, first-serve basis at $3 each or 4 for $10. All purchases should be made through the editor and checks made out to MSNA. The available state quarters are:

- 1999: Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Delaware, and New Jersey
- 2000: Virginia, Massachusetts, South Carolina, and New Hampshire
- 2001: North Carolina, New York, and Rhode Island
